

Problems day 1(if conditions)

Problems solved(if conditions(5))

Problem no:1 K - Battery Low

Question: Chef's phone shows a Battery Low notification if the battery level is 15% or less.

Given that the battery level of Chef's phone is $X\%$, determine whether it would show a Battery low notification.

```
g = int(input())
for i in range(g):
    l = int(input())

    if l <= 15:
        print("YES")
    else:
        print("NO")
```

... 3
15
YES
3
YES
65
NO

Problem no:2 I - Discount

Question: Alice buys a toy with a selling price of 100 rupees. There is a discount of x percent on the toy. Find the amount Alice needs to pay for it.

```
y = int(input())
for i in range(y):
    a = int(input()) print(100 - a)
```

✓ ... 4
5
95
9
91
11
89
21
79

Problem no:3 F - Lunchtime

Question: Chef has his lunch only between 1 pm and 4 pm (both inclusive). Given that the current time is X pm, find out whether it is lunchtime for Chef.

Problems day 1(if conditions)

```
#question f
g = int(input())

for i in range(g):
    l = int(input())

    if 1 <= l <= 4:
        print("YES")
    else:
        print("NO")
```

... 3
1
YES
7
NO
3
YES

Problem no:4 C - Divide the apples - 2

Question: schoolchildren divide k apples evenly, the residue remains in the basket. How many apples remain in the basket

```
#question c
i=int(input()) z=int(input()) print(z%i)
```

$$\dots \quad \begin{matrix} 3 \\ 14 \\ 2 \end{matrix}$$

Problem no:5 A - Print Many Hello World

Question: Write a program which prints 1000 "Hello World".

```
#print hello world question A number=1000
for i in range(number):
    print("Hello World")
```

[illegible]